

Not only should the do not call list be made unavailable to bankers the list should be expanded to include cell phones. This is a slizzy attempt by bankers to circumvent the law. Do not let them do it.